Manhigian

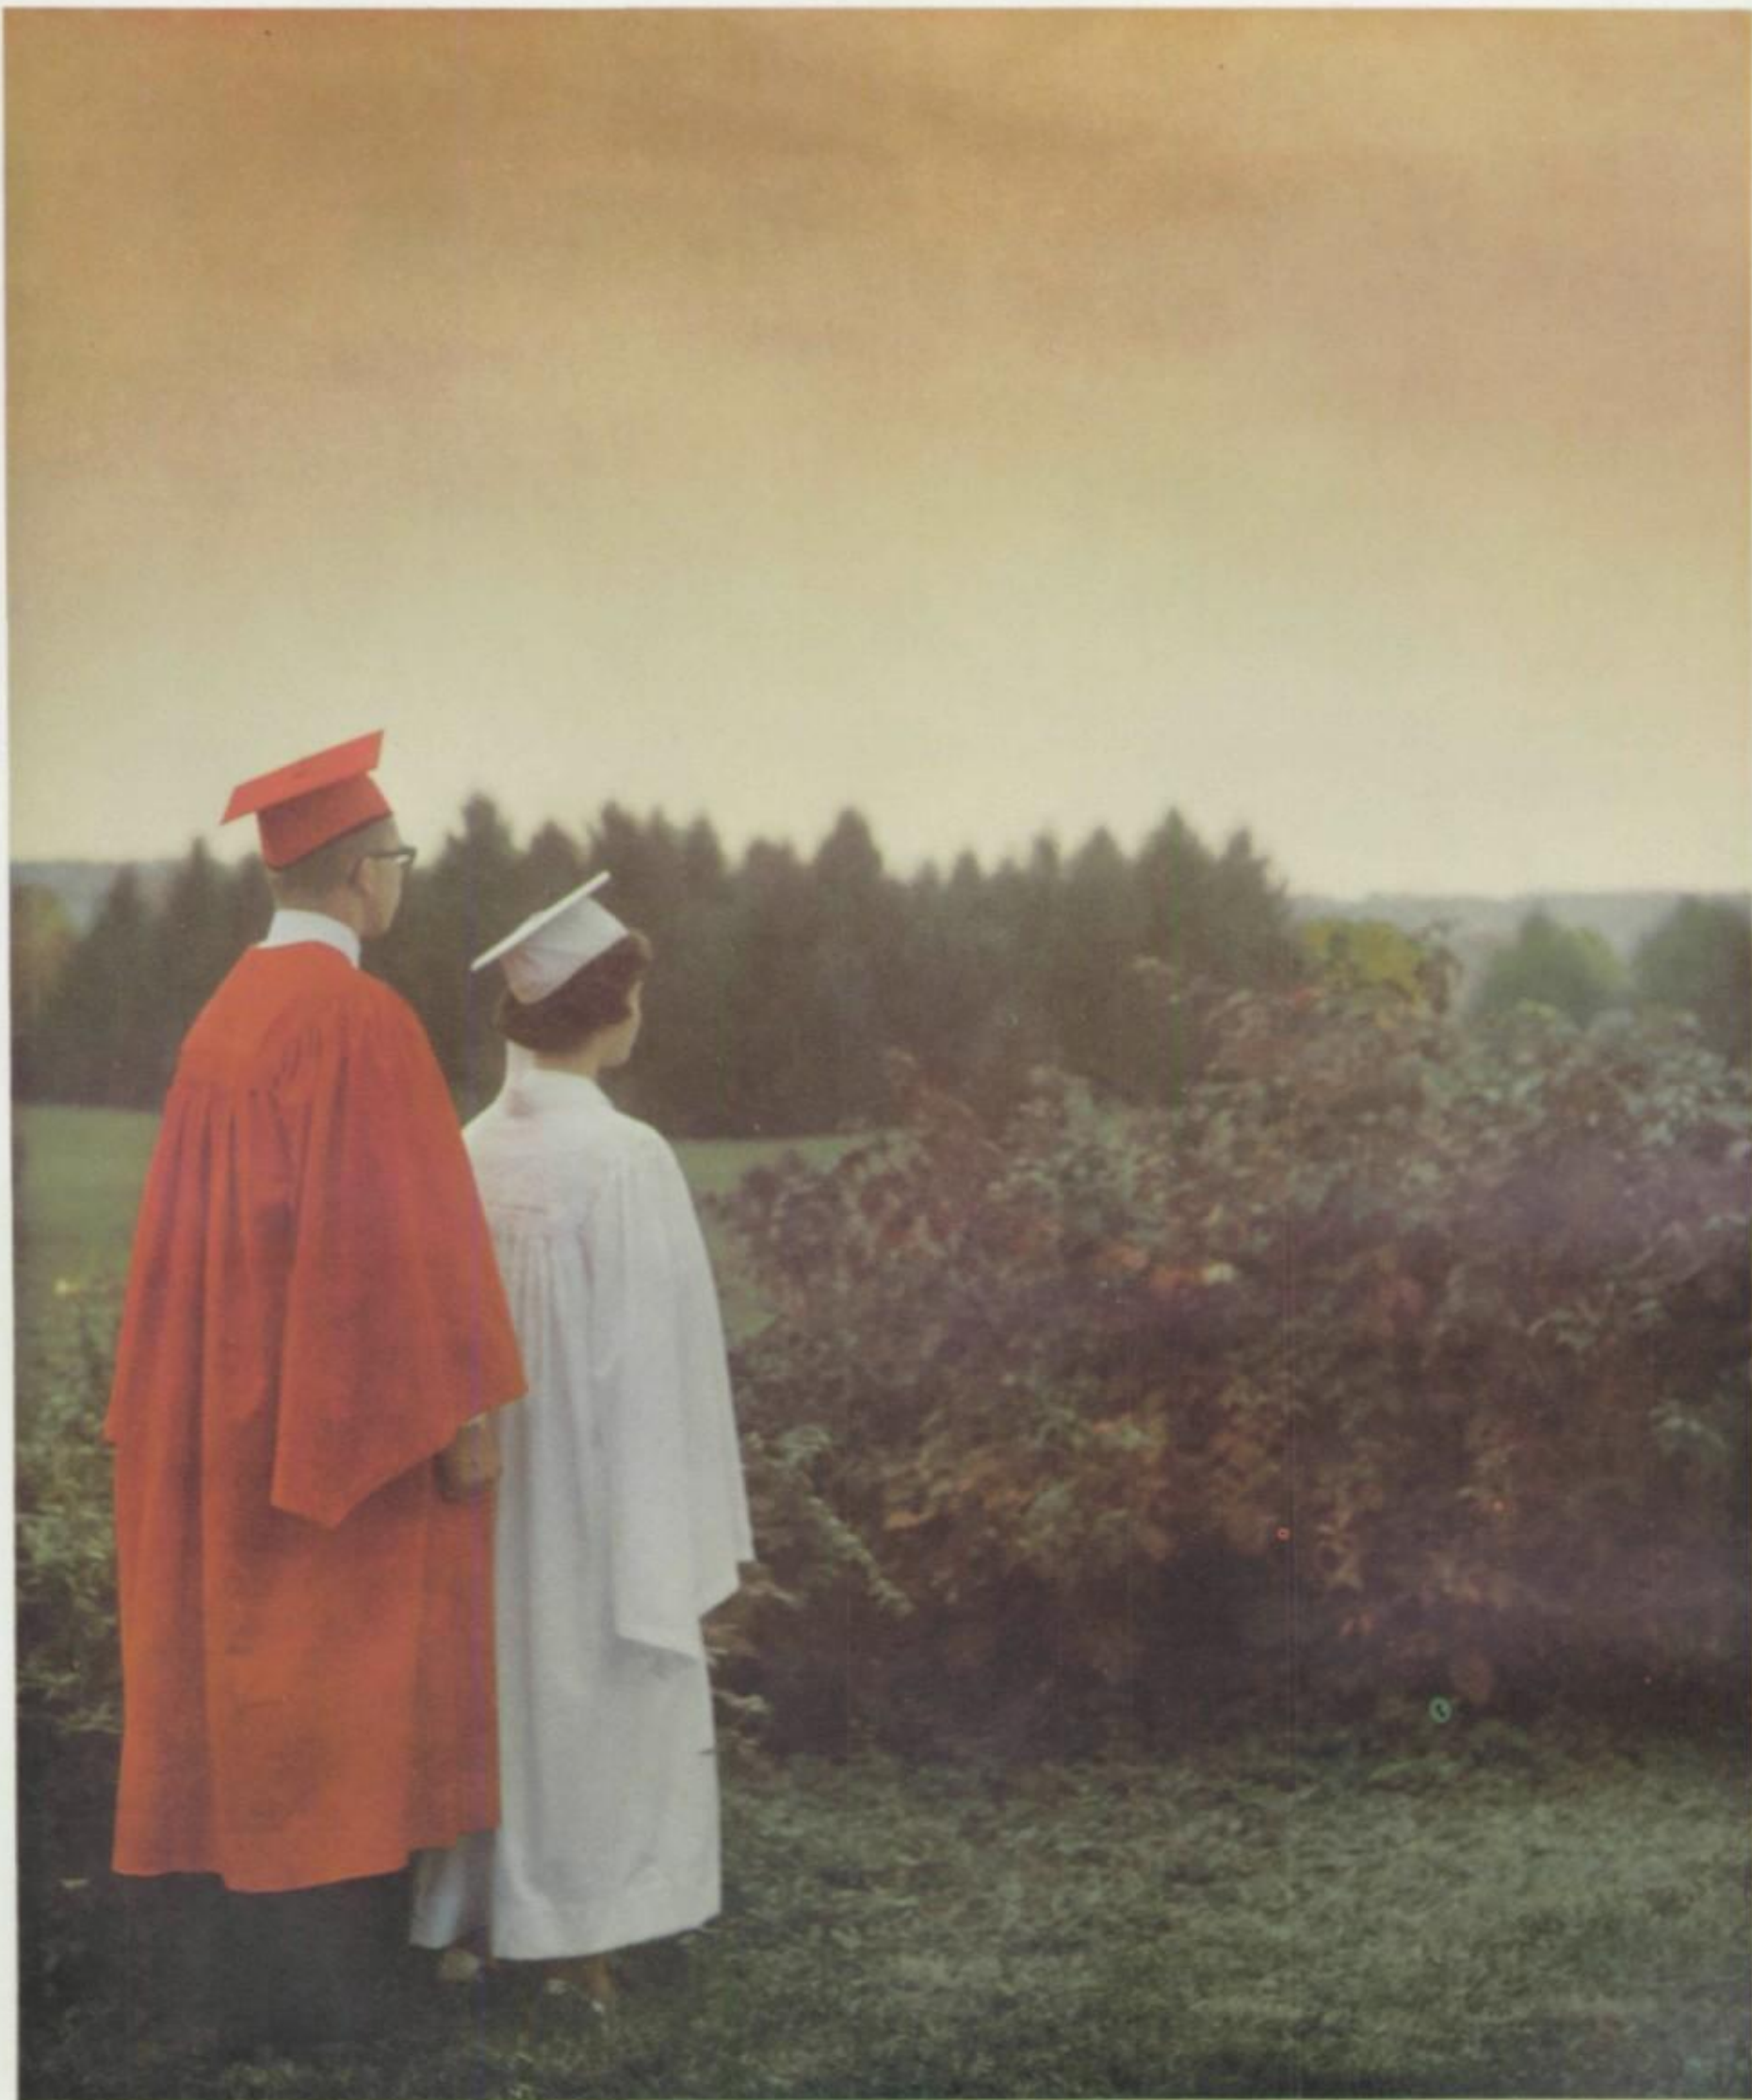

Mansfield Senior High School's

1963 Manhigan

From Dawn ...

Until Dusk ...

I am a student at Mansfield Senior High School. This building is my academic fortress for the majority of my high school years, where I partake of the knowledge, the opportunities, the despair, and the joys which are found behind its doors. My day dawns far earlier than my arrival at school indicates. A hurried awakening, a quick breakfast, a glance at a book, a dash for the door--all these comprise the moments of my dawn. They are but a prelude to my day at M. H. S.

My day is filled with searching. Many are the answers I have to find. Not all of them will I find in books. My education comes from many experiences--a heated discussion at lunch, a hesitant question in class, a new-found satisfaction in music.

Each subject has so much to offer. Yet my feelings fluctuate from the excitement of learning to the discipline of studying. With the ringing of the final bell I burst free into the world outside. A walk home with a friend bridges the distance from my life in school to my activities beyond.

Wherever my afternoons take me, they are most often filled with some phase of school. Whether it is pounding on a V. V. set, working toward further education at an outside job, or just diligently hitting the books at the library, I feel the presence of Mansfield Senior High.

Mr. Sherman is a man who has served selflessly, giving endless time and energy to the students of M.H.S. - without concern for recognition, without thoughts of thanks.

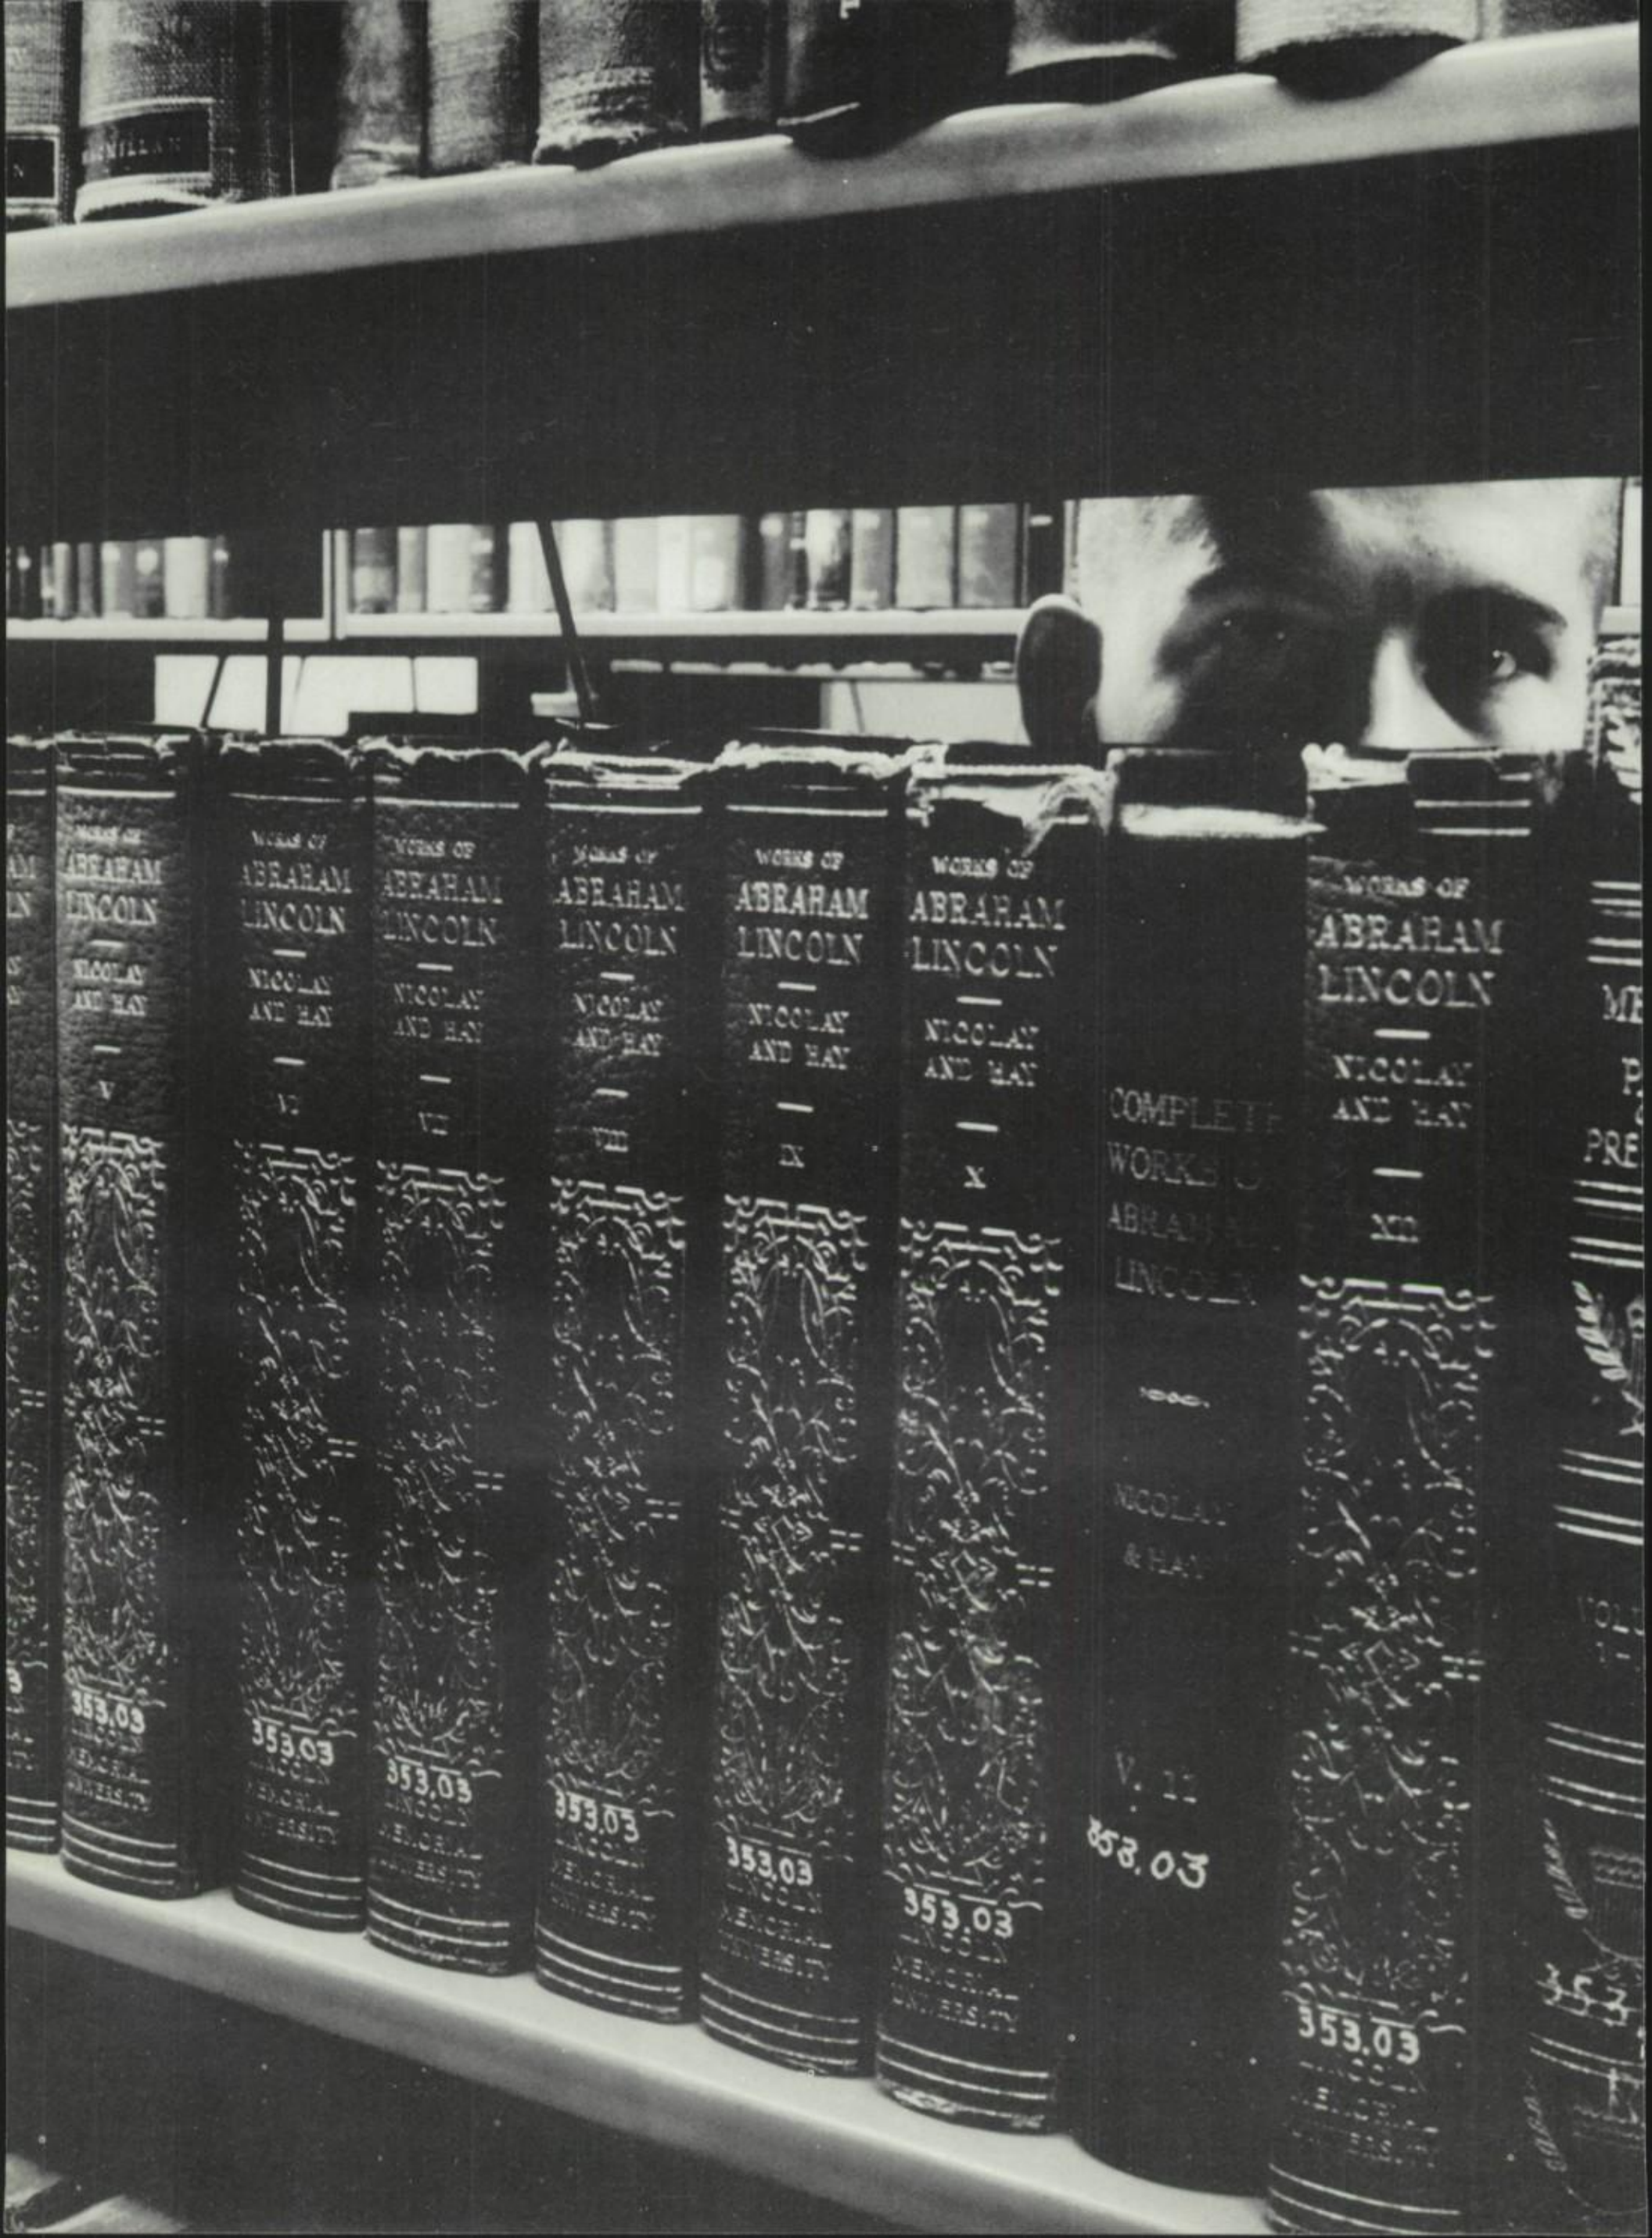

In admiration, we dedicate to you, Mr. Sherman, the 1963 Manhigan.

Dedication

Mr. George Sherman

Miss Sally Kirby
535 Gadfield Road
Mansfield, Ohio

Dear Miss Kirby:

It was great fun and a great honor to be called upon to select this year's Manhigan Queen.

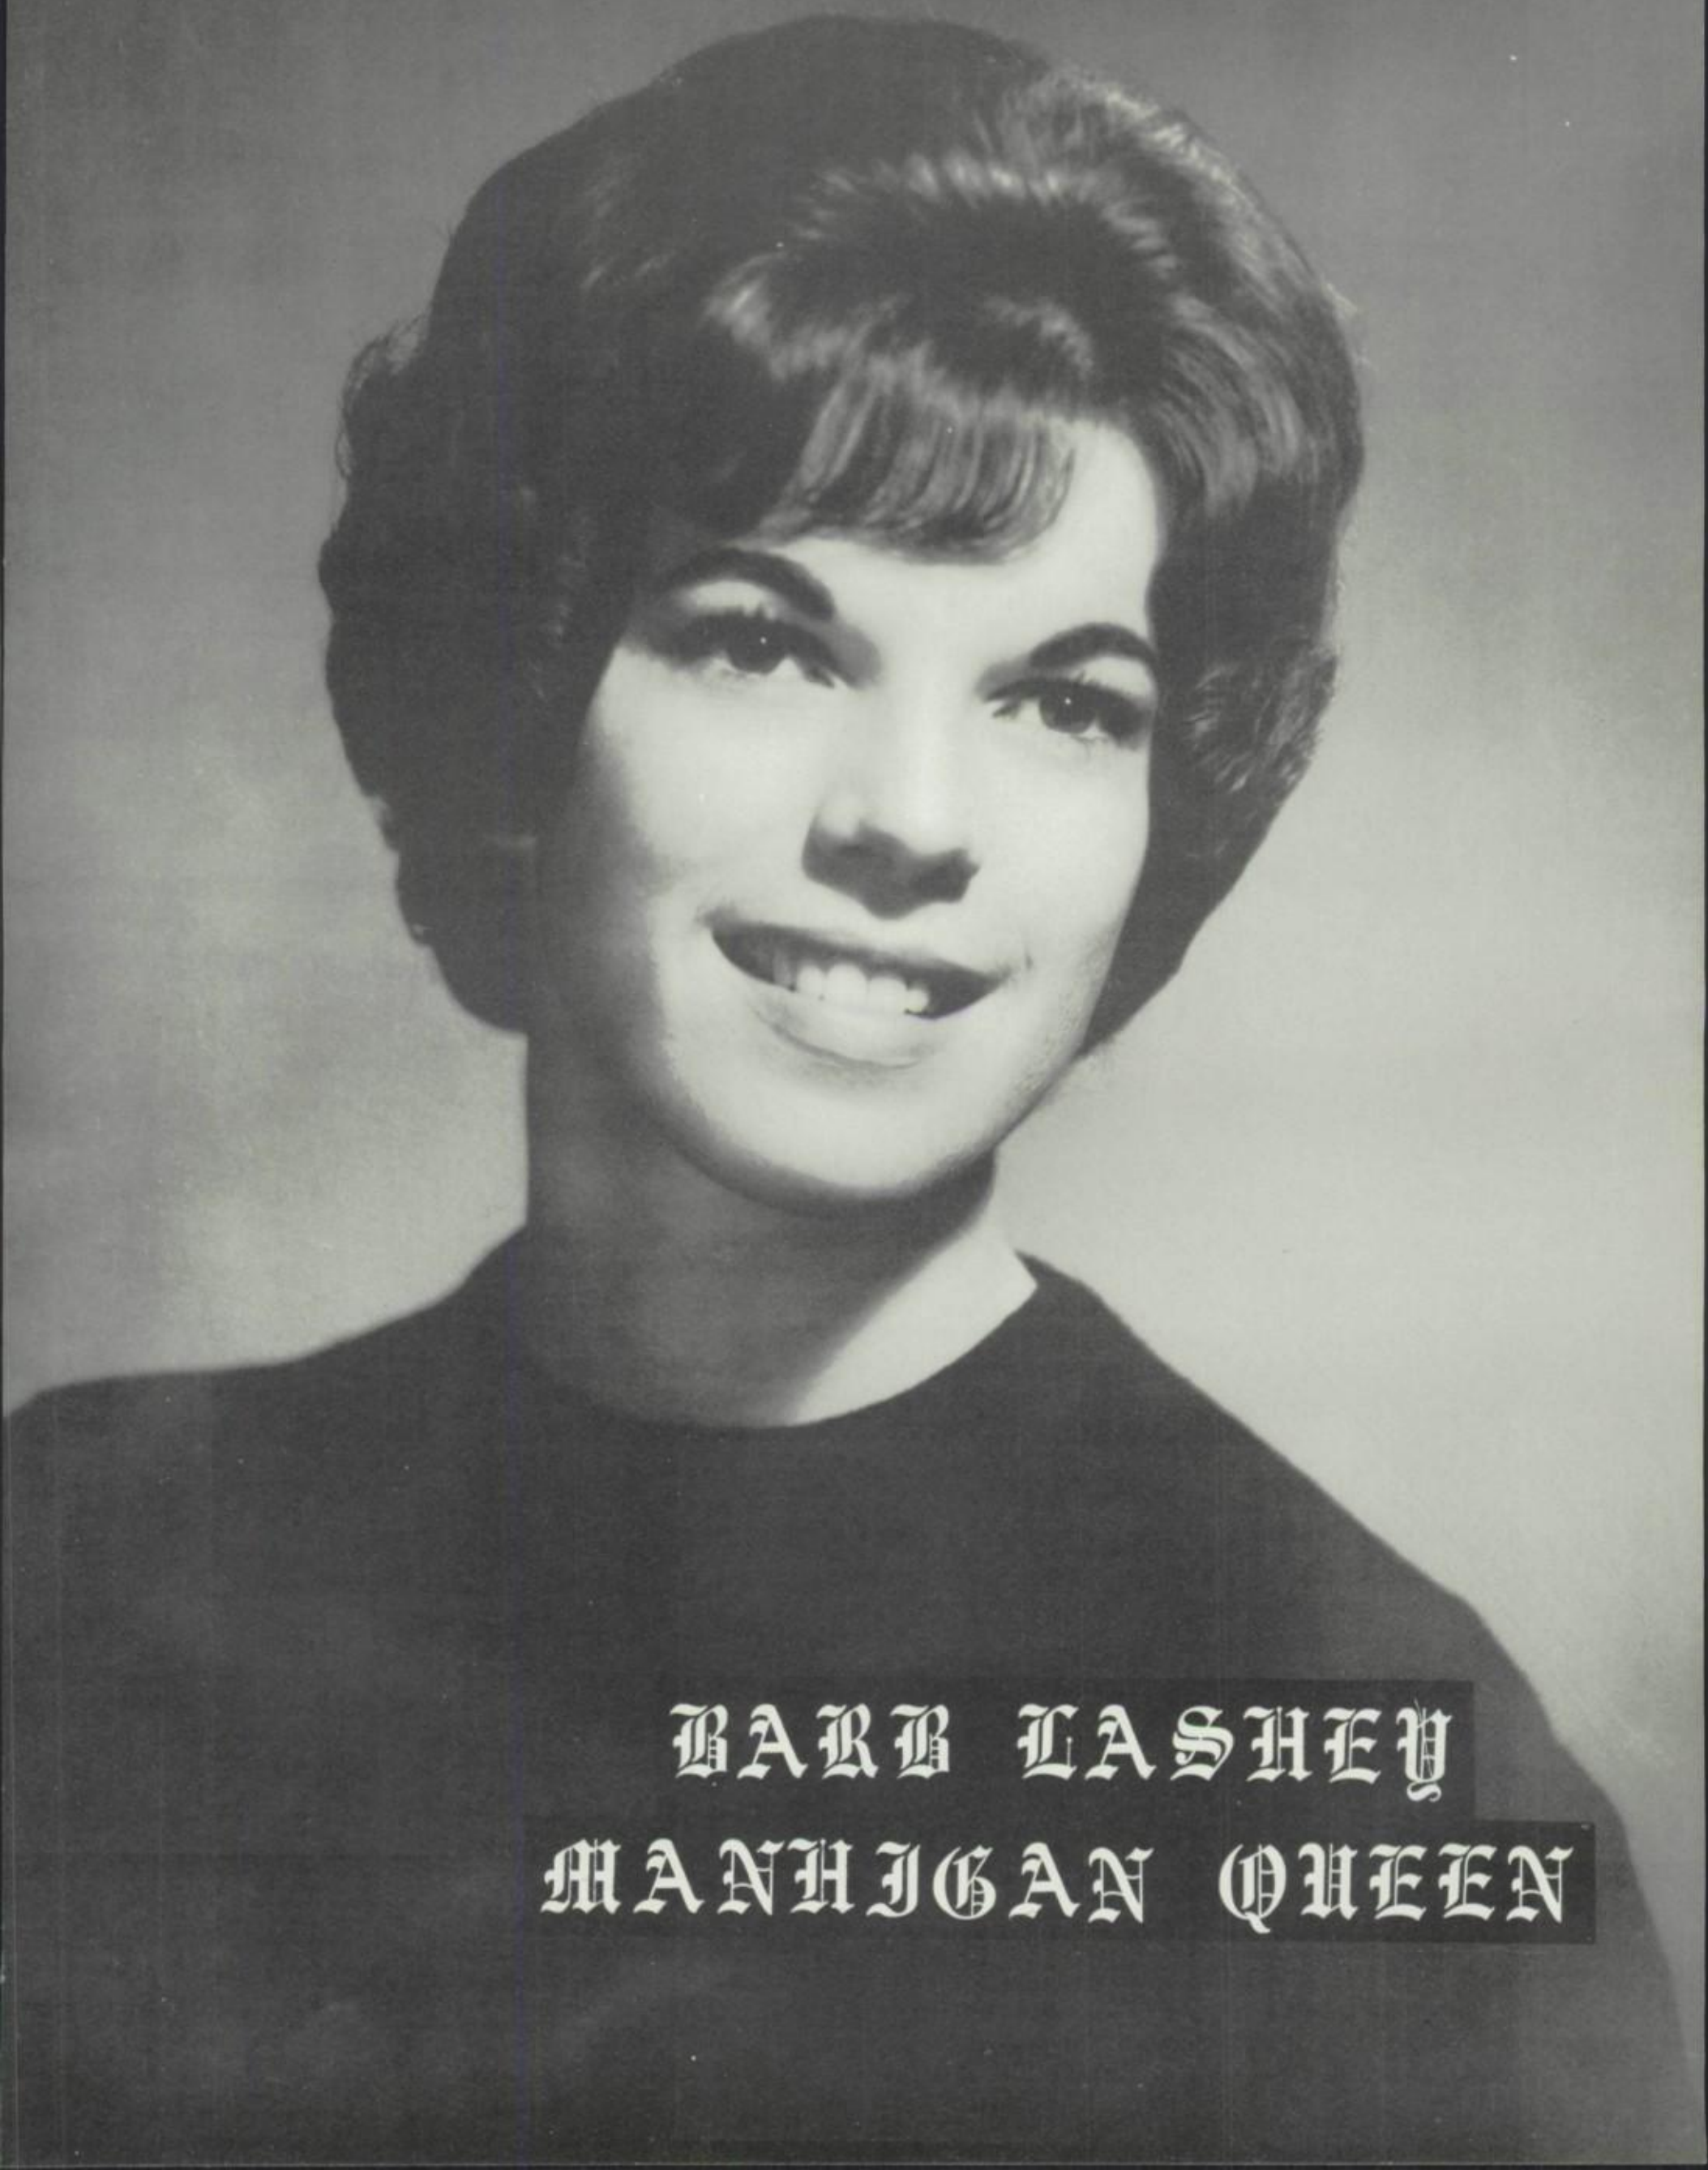

Because one of us is a blond, we have been kind of partial to blonds. After long deliberation, however, we have selected number 3 as our choice for Manhigan Queen.

Enclosed is the picture you asked for. Thanks once again for the honor you have bestowed upon us. Hoping to see all of you somewhere soon, we remain

Very truly yours,

Peter, Paul and Mary

LEADERSHIP,

An open door and a cordial welcome form the policy and attitude of the office of Mansfield's School Superintendent, Mr. W. W. Zinser. A quiet and a congenial leadership are his chief characteristics.

Mr. Zinser received his undergraduate degree from Findlay College and his graduate degree from Western Reserve University. Demonstrating that education is a continual process, he allots time in his busy schedule for advanced study.

Mr. Zinser's contributions to the school system have been both practical and progressive and his influence within the community has been beneficial.

SCHOOL BOARD

Seated: Mr. Burton Preston, Dr. William Houston, Dr. Marvin Dees, Dr. Edwin Fensch.
 Standing: Mr. Glen Robinson, Mr. John Eisaman (deceased December 19, 1962), Mr. Woodrow Zinser, Mr. David McGinty, Mr. George Murray, Mr. Leslie Mishey.

Mr. Eisaman served his community well.

PAR EXCELLENCE

MR. GLASS

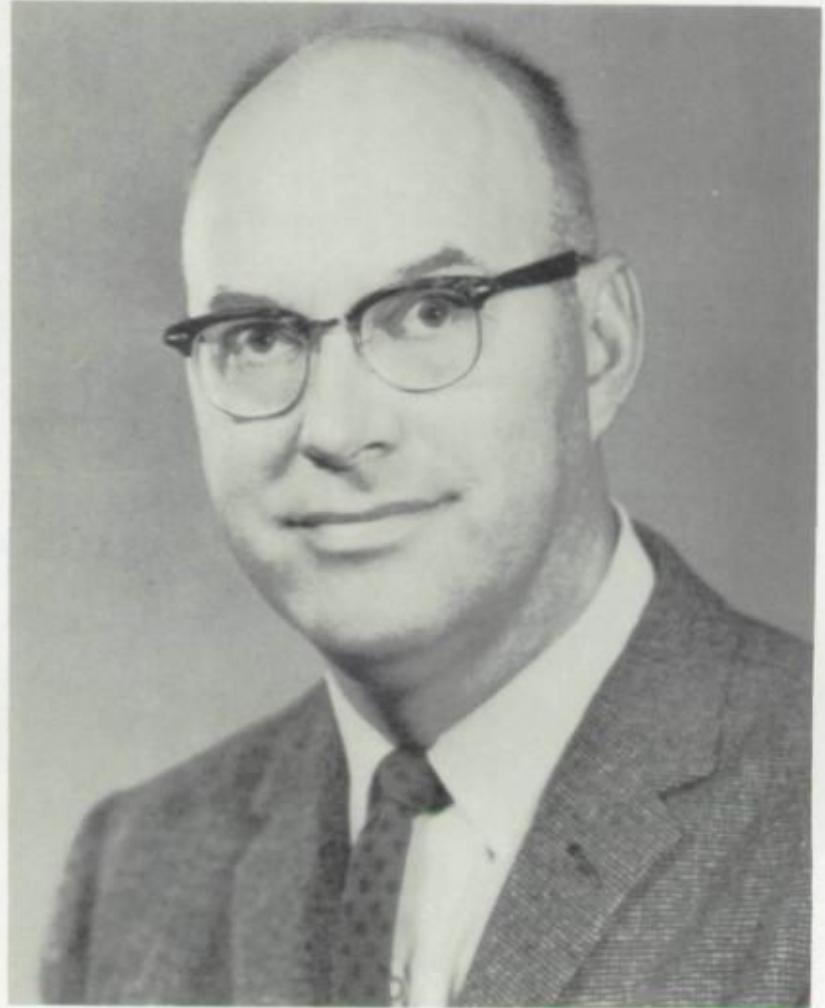

"Come in," smiles Mr. Glass, a man ready for conference and wise in counsel.

Father, teacher, student, golfer--all of these--and principal, too!

Receiving degrees from The Ohio State University, Mr. Glass studied extensively at The University of New Mexico and continues to study at and teach for The Ohio State University.

For his staff, for our faculty, and for the community Mr. Glass gives of his time and of his talents.

Under his able supervision, Senior High stays in step with changing trends in education.

MR. SHERMAN

"I shall explain the procedure," instructs Mr. Sherman as he sets into precise motion one of his many plans for coordinating the functions of the school. Exacting, efficient, dedicated, and disciplined describe Senior High's Assistant Principal. Understanding and humor are equal ingredients in Mr. Sherman's personality.

Having been graduated from Bliss College, he did additional work at Kent State University.

Mr. Sherman has earned and enjoys the respect of the community. Senior High is a better school because of his service.

BUSINESS STAFFS

Manhigan Business Staff.

Not just busy, but efficiently so, was the Manhigan Business Staff. Selling subscriptions was the first of the staff's duties; distribution of the yearbook was the last of their tasks. Ohio School Pictures funds and book cover sales necessitated mathematical skill and competent organization.

Hyphonerian Business Staff worked diligently both in and out of school. During school they distributed papers and arranged for exchanges of newspapers with other schools. Out of school they sold advertising space to local businesses.

Manhigan subscriptions were sold last fall.

Hypho staff sold papers in homeroom.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

Home is where the heart is.

Happy hopefuls for a bon voyage.

This years world travelers were Ursula Stahl and Bob Evans. Ursula, who lives in Germany, was brought to Mansfield for a year by the First English Lutheran Church and is now living with the W. R. McCullough's. The National A. F. S. chapter chose Bob to go to Lyons, France for the summer. He was our first A. F. S. representative to benefit from this world-wide organization.

Ursula and her American sister, Miriam.

What's the answer to the fourth one?

A. F. S.

Now what do we do?

American Field Service, a young organization in our school, has been successful in giving students a chance to know and understand students of other lands.

The projects of the club for the last year have been the sale of ribbon candy, a dance, a bake sale, and a surprise day.

25¢! But they're straw.

V. I. P's of A. F. S.

No, it's mine.

DAWN OF THE SCHOOL YEAR

The official sound that started the school year.

The empty halls awaited the surge of returning students.

The recently readied halls awaited the arrival of students. The clock was set to sound the first bell, initiating the establishment of a carefully regulated schedule. For many, the first day was a repeated experience; for some it was the dawn of a high school career.

Renewing of old friendships and the forming of new ones were important parts of the beginning of the school year.

COUNCIL HELD OPEN HOUSE

Teachers and parents compared notes on pupils' progress.

Parents were welcomed at the door.

This year at Open House parents were able to meet the teachers that their sons and daughters worked with and to become familiar with the classrooms in which they worked. Parents were not held to an exacting time schedule during classroom visitation. The Student Council sponsored the event and acted as guides, hosts, and attendance officers.

Guides helped parents to become familiar with students' schedules.

COLLEGE, HERE WE COME!

Time for enthusiastic discussions and appreciated refreshments.

"College Night," sponsored by National Honor Society, offered area students a glimpse into the activities and academics of many colleges and universities. Representatives from nearly fifty different colleges presented talks including information about college fees, social life, sports events, and courses of study. This event supplied an evening of gathering information and exchanging ideas.

Camera causes a moment of interruption.

Concise advice.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

Career Night opens with a briefing period.

Choosing a vocation becomes more important with each passing year in high school, and, as in past years, Career Night awarded an opportunity to look at future careers. A wide selection of vocations was represented by business and professional people in the Mansfield area. These people informed attending area students and their parents of the needed preparation, and benefits and obstacles of their respective careers.

Hard work ahead.

Career information captures attentions and challenges initiative.

THE TYGER MARCHING BAND

Discussing tactics for a fine performance.

Under the spotlights.

The Mansfield Senior High School Varsity Marching Band began practicing early in June. Through the summer months the members worked out their original and entertaining maneuvers. By the first football half-time show, the band had reached perfection. Under the direction of Mr. Hall and Mr. Gaines the band participated and excelled in such activities as Varsity Varieties, the contests, and concerts. This year's Varsity Band was one in which all students took pride, for the band exhibited the quality of cooperation and achievement that represented the high standards of Mansfield Senior High School.

THE SOUND OF MUSIC

The Mansfield Senior High Orchestra, directed by Mr. Hall, supplied sweet symphonic sounds at its annual concert, the class play, and other school activities. The orchestra's ability was revealed by its high rating at contests. Because of this orchestra our assemblies were alive with the sound of music.

MUSICAL MARCHERS

Hearing the Reserve Band practice revealed to every listener that another great varsity band was on its way. Through the year members developed the spark, precision, and color which are characteristics of a fine band. Mr. Gaines led the band through a highly successful half-time debut and an enjoyable concert appearance. Elected as their president was Jeff Davis.

VOCALISTS WITH VARIETY

The annual Christmas program would be incomplete without the musical touch of the Concert Choir, the Boys' Choir, and the Girls' Choir. All of these groups, under the direction of Mr. Derr, made exceptional contributions to the school's musical program. Their selections ranged from the standard classics and all time favorites, to contemporary compositions.

FEATURING A TALENTED CAST

A moment to remember.

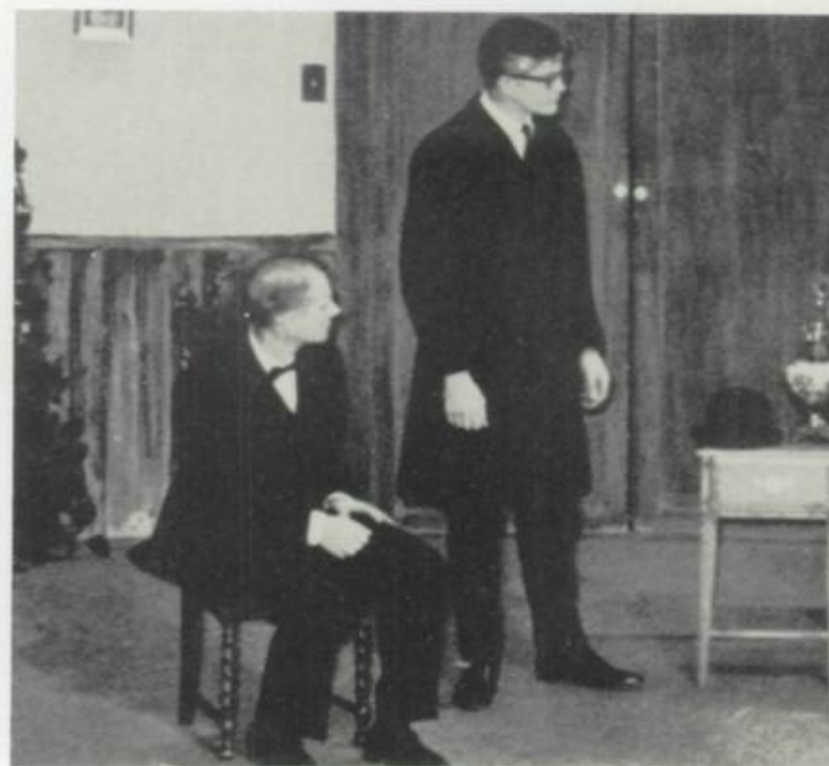

As the suspenseful melodrama came to a close, the audience broke into an enthusiastic ovation. The Class of 1963 had completed the second successful performance of "Double Door." Under the able direction of Mr. Earl Heasley, the accomplished dramatic ability of this year's cast was artfully demonstrated.

JIM DOUGHERTY
HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Coach Jim Dougherty was graduated from Bellvue High School in Bellvue, Kentucky. He attended Miami University for two years, entered the army infantry for another two years, and then was graduated from the University of Cincinnati in 1950.

During his college football career he was named to the first team of the American Conference, was voted All-Ohio honorable mention, and was selected most valuable player of the University of Cincinnati football team in 1948.

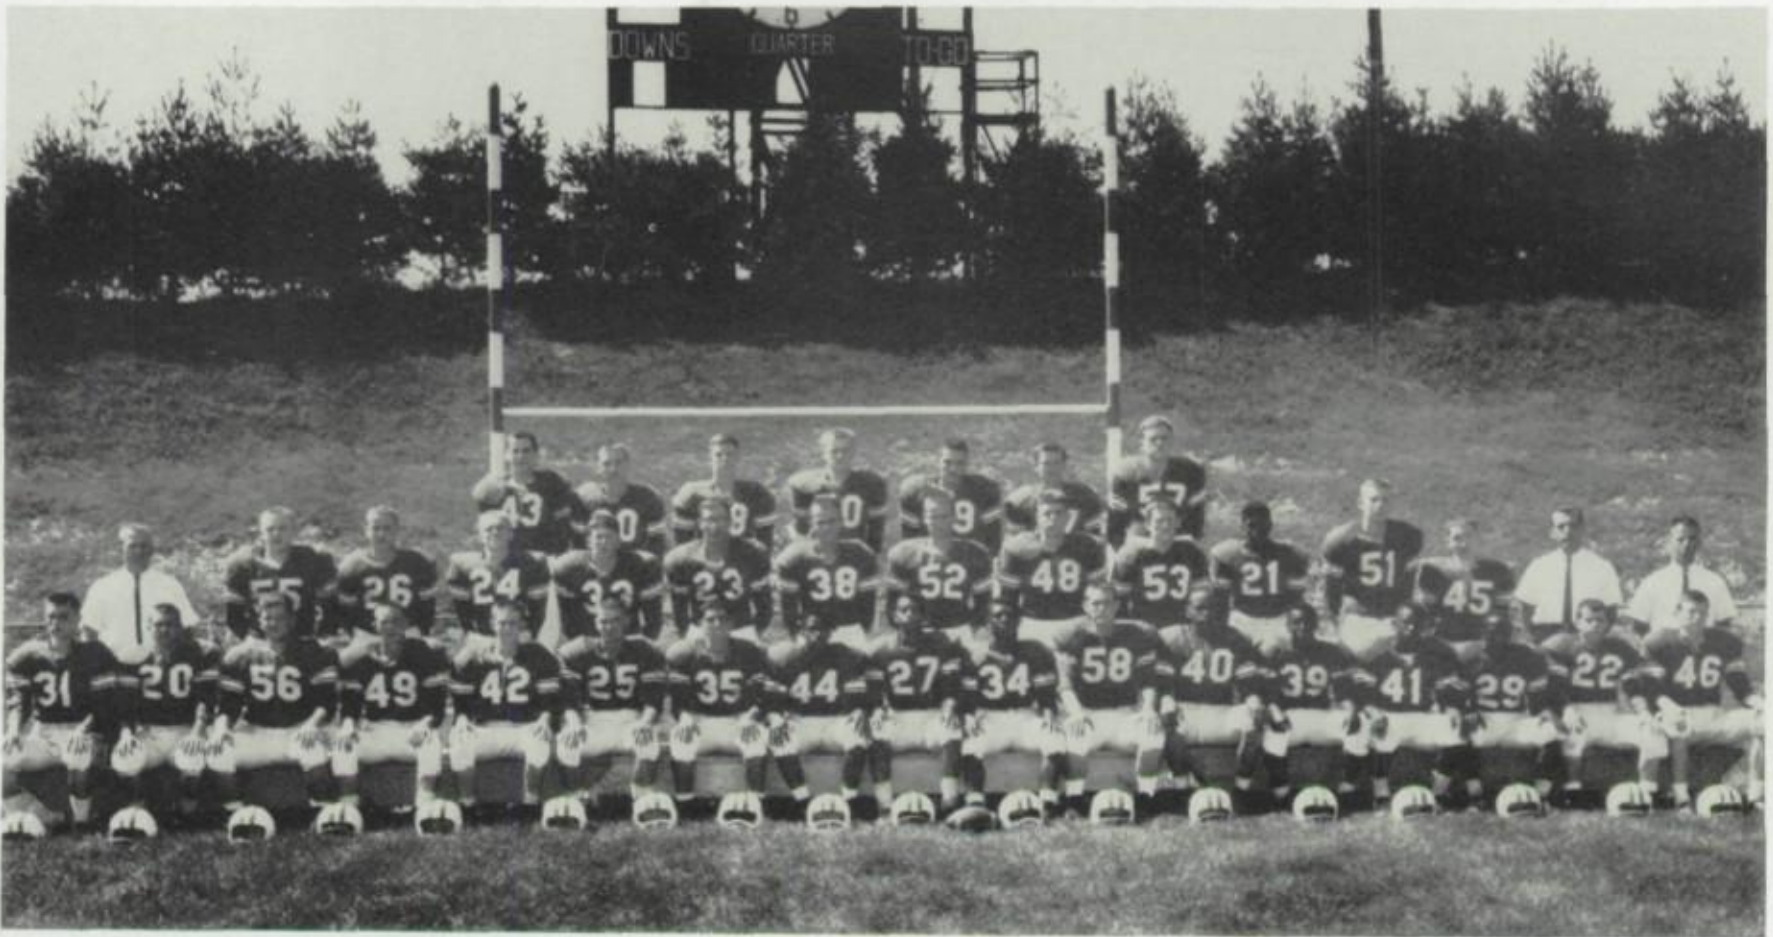

This year Coach Dougherty came to Mansfield from Cincinnati Woodward High School where he had served for four years as football mentor and three years as track coach. Previously he had been head football coach at Harrison High School for eight years, winning sixty-four out of seventy-seven games.

During his thirteen years of coaching, Dougherty has produced six league champions, while compiling an outstanding record of 88-31-8.

VARSITY COACHES
DICK EVILSIZOR AND JIM BURKETT

Head basketball coach, Jim Burkett, produced an excellent Tyger team, a team that performed superbly during its first year in the tough Buckeye Conference.

Coach Burkett's hometown is Toledo, Ohio. He attended De Vilbiss High School and was graduated from Bowling Green State University. Throughout high school and college he won numerous recognition awards in athletics.

From 1954 to 1959 Mr. Burkett coached baseball and basketball at Thompson High School in Seneca County. Twice his team went to their Sectional Tournament and once to their District Tournament.

In 1959 Coach Burkett came to Mansfield Senior High as assistant coach to Mr. Vern Hoffman. "I've enjoyed all my coaching assignments at Mansfield," commented Mr. Burkett. He went on to say, "The most important parts of coaching are earning the respect of the players and winning the confidence and cooperation of the faculty and my fellow coaches." His ambition for the team was expressed in this way: "During the years Mr. Hoffman was here a fine basketball winning tradition was built up, and I shall try to carry on that fine tradition."

Carson's patented hook.

After an opening game loss at Fremont, the Tygers scored two straight Buckeye Conference victories. Then Marion Harding dealt the varsity cagers their first home loss of the season. The Tygers bounced back to win six straight contests. Highlights of this victory streak were triumphs over a tough Sandusky team and our arch-rival Ashland. A zone defense bottled up fourth-ranked Warren Harding for three quarters, but in the fourth period the Panthers overcame a nine point deficit to defeat the Tygers 54-50.

Goode's good on the rebound

Following a one point trimming by Elyria, the Bengals conquered once-beaten Marion Harding by five points. A week later, Cuyahoga Falls edged the Tygers by three points in a hotly-contested battle.

The first tournament game loss to Marion Harding was a typical example of Tyger games this year, because they demonstrated come-from-behind ability. The Tygers fell behind early in the game and finally knotted the score at the end of the third quarter. In the fourth period the lead changed hands several times, but the Prexies emerged the victors, 55-52.

This year under the direction of Coach Flanagan, the varsity wrestling team compiled an 8-3-1 record, the best ever for a Senior High wrestling squad. The leading Tyger grapplers were George Potter, Bob Russell, Dave Hoovler, and Roy Jackson. One of the highlights of the season was a record-breaking 41-0 victory over Sandusky.

George Potter (18-2) captured the Buckeye Conference wrestling crown in the 165 pound class, while Ron Parr, who showed vast improvement this year, gained the Buckeye Conference championship in the 175 pound class. Bob Russell (16-4), Tyger heavyweight, lost the Conference championship in his class by one point in an overtime match.

At the district wrestling meet, the Tygers finished sixth with George Potter finishing second in the 165 pound weight class.

In his sixth year, Coach Bartholow's tankers produced an excellent season with only four losses in twelve meets. One of the most exciting battles of the season was with the Findlay Trojans. The Tygers remembered last year's one point loss to Findlay and they were out to redeem themselves. They accomplished their goal by winning the last event with a record-breaking time.

Four of the top swimmers of the year were Sam Lerro (captain), Dave Beard, Dave Preuninger, and Ron Steiner. The relay team consisted of Beard, Lerro, Prosser, and Reiner.

The Tygers finished off their fine season by taking three firsts in the district swim meet. In the state meet Sam Lerro finished sixth in the fifty yard freestyle for the Tygers.

During the regular season individual records were set by Sam Lerro in the fifty yard freestyle and Dave Beard in the two hundred yard freestyle.

This year the Tyger track team took a respectable fourth place out of 45 schools in the Tri-State Meet at Pittsburgh after two straight victories. Because of their fine finish in Pittsburgh, the team looked forward to continued success in the remaining meets. About the Mansfield Relays Coach Mehock said, "Some of the schools met this year possessed the finest teams they have had for years. Within the season we met these fine schools at the Ypsilanti Relays and our own Mansfield Relays." Considering the lack of seniors on our squad this year, we made a fine showing. Much is expected from next year's team.

PEP CLUB BOOSTS TEAM SPIRIT

Poster contest winners received special recognition.

Presenting the Mansfield Tygers. . .

Certainly the largest and liveliest organization at M. H. S. was the school's grrr-eat Pep Club, which presented pre-game pep assemblies and furnished pep buses throughout the year. Helping to stimulate school spirit, the group obtained the Tyger Head through which our basketball team was presented at home games, painted many effective signs and banners, and sponsored a poster contest.

The club was led by Bill Mitchell, President; Fred Duy, Vice-President; Candy Richeson, Secretary; and Sue Riester, Treasurer; and was advised by Mrs. Laura Evilsizor.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

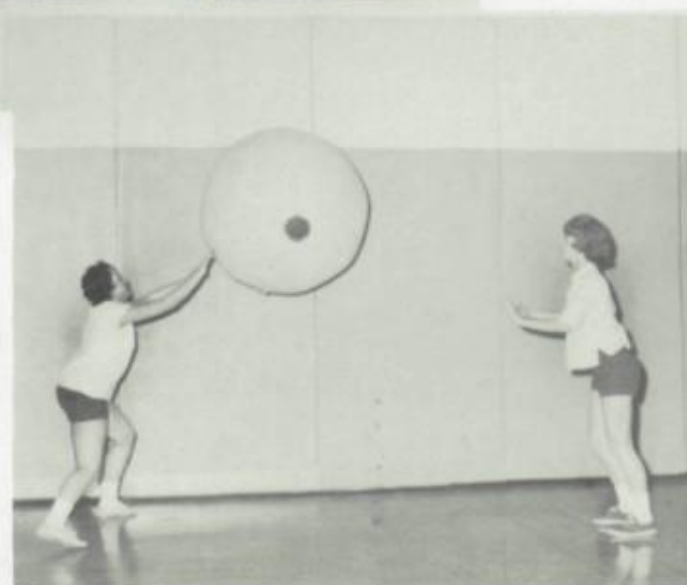

Each Monday afternoon the girls' gym was filled with energetic G. A. A. members who participated in various competitive sports and well-organized projects throughout the year. Volleyball, basketball, and bowling tournaments helped to stimulate interest in team sports, develop leadership qualities and promote sportsmanship. Fudge sales provided the club with necessary funds.

Vicki Woodman, President; Pat Ness, Vice-President; Judy Rush, Secretary; and Diane Hildebrand, Treasurer served as the group's officers. Mrs. Nella Plough was the club's advisor.

SENIORS SPONSOR DINNER

This year the Senior Hi-Y continued on its way to success. Among its numerous services and money-making projects for the school and community were a Halloween candy sale and a spaghetti dinner.

Two boys were chosen as delegates to Youth in Government, a program for the study of government, conducted in April in Columbus.

Serving as officers were Jim Goode, President; Jim Carson, Vice-President; Fred Duy, Secretary; Bill Mitchell, Treasurer; and Dick Wert, Chaplain. This year's advisors were Mr. William Flanagan and Mr. Frank Bartholow.

Spiritual fulfillment.

GIRLS AID ADOPTED FAMILY

Sponsoring a needy family was the chief project with which the Senior Y-Teen group completed its four years of service. The group spent both time and money on this worthwhile endeavour. This project gave the girls a chance to serve the community.

The Senior Y-Teens presented a style show which was held at the "Y." This event proved to be both socially and financially successful.

The group also sold candy and fruit cakes to raise funds for its much-anticipated Easter trip to New York City. The trip was among the group's memorable experiences.

Heading the club in its last year were Lou Farber, President; Barb Brollier, Vice-President; Barb Crumrine, Secretary; Jean Pryor, Corresponding Secretary; and Vicki Woodman, Treasurer.

A poster is worth 1000 words.

DIVIDING DOUBLES SERVICE

Handle with care.

This year, due to the greater interest in the Hi-Y movement, it was necessary for the junior group to split into two organizations. This dividing did not affect the purpose of the clubs. Both factions created, maintained, and extended high standards of Christian character throughout the home, school, and community. The officers presiding over the two clubs were Presidents, Sandy Turner and Tom Downs; Vice-Presidents, Mac Flinn and Jeff Smalley; Secretaries, John Enderle and Denny Snyder; Treasurers, Jerry Hoffer and Joe Prats; and Chaplains, Jim Berry and Paul Cindrich. The clubs were advised by Mr. Ray Gerrell and Mr. Joe Cindrich.

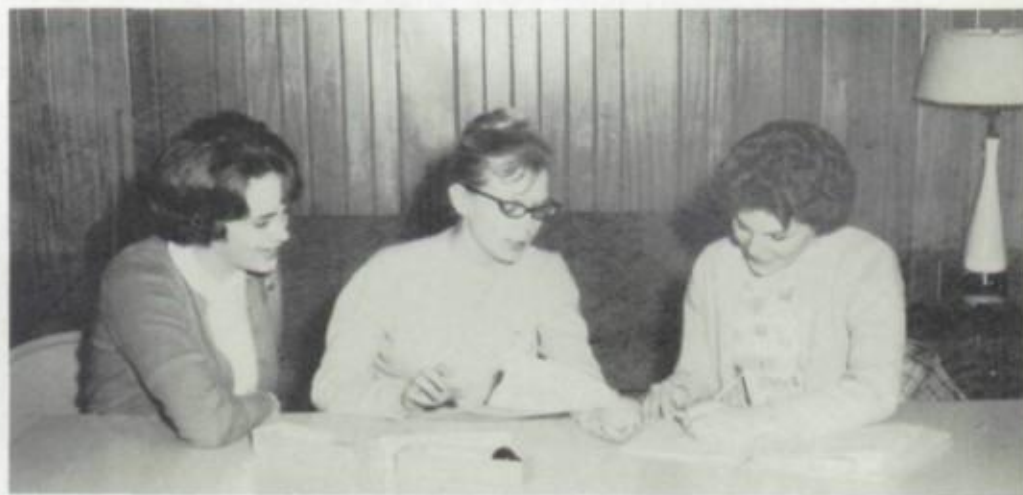

GIRLS WRITE SISTER CITY

Working to promote better understanding between girls, communities, and different races and religions, the members of Junior Y-Teens wrote a letter to Mansfield's Sister City of Dar Es Salaam, explaining the functions and purpose of their organization. The group planned many service projects, including the preparation of a Christmas basket which was presented to a needy family.

Sue Benzin, the club's President, was assisted by Carol Ripper, Vice-President; Gail Schadek, Secretary; and Linda Frush, Treasurer. Mrs. Norma Domer served as the group's advisor.

SOPHS MAINTAIN HI-Y SPIRIT

The newly-formed Sophomore Hi-Y started out with and maintained traditional Hi-Y zeal. The stated slogan of this club was, "We help those who help themselves."

Candidly, the sophomore group expressed its enthusiasm for accumulating funds for a forthcoming trip.

This year's officers were President, Alan Fliegel; Vice-President, Bruce McCartney; Secretary, Larry Heichel; Treasurer, John Masquelier; and Chaplain, George Morales.

The arm of the law extends in instruction.

PROJECTING Y-TEEN UNITY

The largest Y-Teen club this year was the Sophomore group. The club's purpose was evident in all of its service projects, including the construction of a mitten tree and the making of valentine favors for shut-ins. While serving others, the Sophomore Y-Teens also found time to have a hayride which was considered successful.

Leading the club were Bonni Hall, President; Judy Heitz, Vice-President; Sally Linn, Secretary; and Helen Bissman, Treasurer. This year's representative to the Inter Club Council was Laurie Shiplet.

The purpose of the Key Club is to develop initiative and leadership, to serve the school and community, and to prepare for useful citizenship. This year special effort was made to fulfill this purpose under the direction of the officers.

Club members painted parking lines in front of the school, rang bells for the Salvation Army downtown at Christmas time, served at the Kiwanis Pancake Day, changed the Activity Board in front of the office, and helped in numerous other school activities.

AUDIO VISUAL AIDS ALL

Mr. Poffenbaugh explains the opaque projector.

The audio visual department, under the guidance of Mr. Richard Poffenbaugh, provided audio visual service to the school.

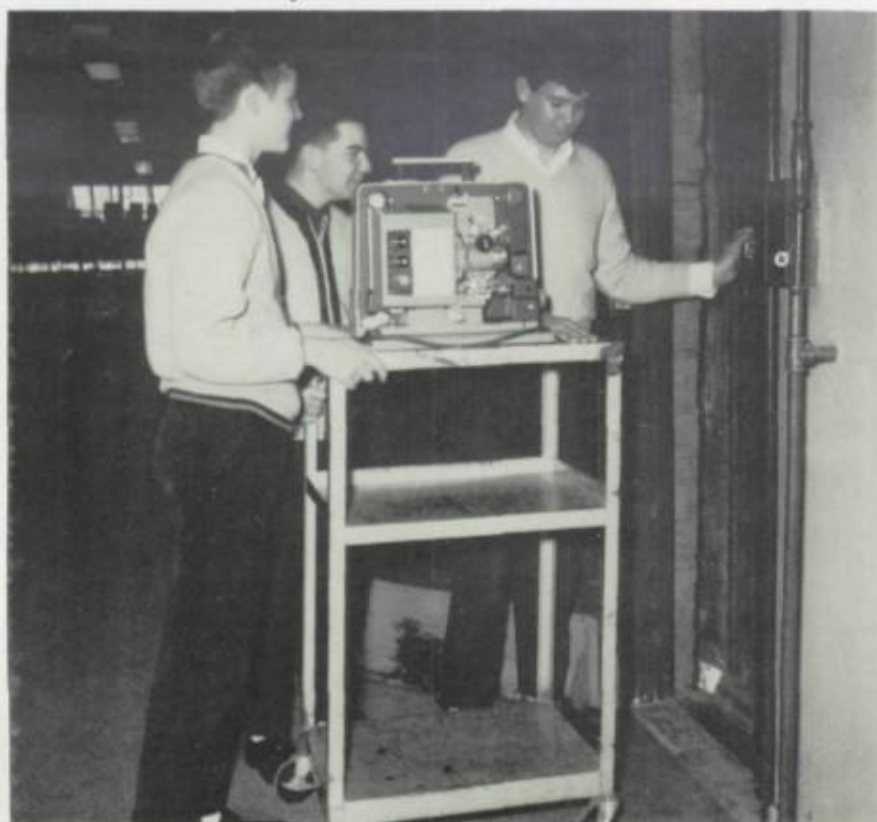

These aids--movies, film strips, tape recordings, opaque projections, and records--assisted classes in their pursuit for better education. Another phase of their work was providing the public address system for basketball games, pep assemblies and school dances.

Members of this service group were Randall Edwards, President; Dan Hicks, Vice-President; Bruce Perathaner, David Mann, David Stickney, Jesse Jefferson, Charles Harding, Elijah Baker, Gary Deppe, Alan Tootikan, Dick Yarman, Burton Stahl, Tim Brenner, Tom Pollock, and Harold Baker.

The Stage Crew was a volunteer group of seven boys who donated their time for the preparation and presentation of school programs. The boys constructed scenery, prepared the lighting, and staged all school assemblies, including Homecoming, the Senior Class Play, Varsity Varieties, class elections, and class day.

Members of the Stage Crew were Glen Hoffman, George Rusiska, Ludwig Schenk, Walter Hunsinger, Lonnie Them, and William Reese, stage manager. Advising the group was Mr. Earl Heasley.

CLUBS WITH A PURPOSE

"A choice cut, Sir," says Lester Vnasdale to a customer.

This year marked the beginning of two new co-op training programs at Mansfield Senior High. Distributive Education, a program offering retail sales experience, was taught by Mr. J. J. Thoms. Learning modern techniques of salesmanship prepared this group of twenty students for the business world after graduation.

Cooperative Office Training was another vocational training group initiated this year. Nineteen students received office experience by attending school in the morning and working in an office in the afternoon. This group was under the authority of Mr. R. W. Williams.

Diversified Cooperative Training, designed for students with various vocational interests, marked its seventh year at M. H. S. Under the direction of Mr. Albert Coffman, D. C. T. students gained vocational experience by part-time employment.

Youth for Christ, a religious organization, encouraged fellowship on a Christian level and gave the students of Mansfield Senior High a chance to better understand the teachings of Christ.

Y. F. C. rallies, held on alternate Saturday evenings, were in addition to the regular weekly meetings. Quiz teams, sponsored by Y. F. C., gave members a chance to compete with other groups in their knowledge of the Bible.

"Partners in Progress" describes the members and depicts the annual Junior Achievement Trade Fair theme. These partners are business and youth working together.

This year sixteen miniature companies were formed, including a newspaper--the J. A. Journal. Each company, composed of officers and a board of directors, sold stock, produced a product, and sold it to consumers.

The benefits of Junior Achievement are many. Achievers can use J. A. in their futures by putting their J. A. experience to work, by deciding how and where to earn a living, and by considering the ways to continue education.

"Mr. J. A."--John Ahart--a familiar friend to all achievers.

Becky Guilkey demonstrates the merits of "Handi-Hangers" to a prospective buyer.

Production--an important phase of J. A.

TOMORROW'S TEACHERS

Future Teachers was an organization to better acquaint interested students with the profession of teaching. Meeting the first Wednesday of each month, the club had various programs and projects.

Visiting local grade schools provided a first-hand impression of teaching. Other programs included speakers and a movie.

The girls ushered for the science fair and were feted at the annual May Tea by the city teachers.

Leading the club were Stephanie Wojcik, President; Kathy Klippel, Vice-President; and Jeanne Yockey, Secretary-Treasurer.

Students discuss their past experiences with teachers.

First Row: Miss Howard, Pat Wilkins, Flora Cornish, Ramona Bennett, Jeanne Yockey, Stephanie Wojcik, Kathy Klippel, Mrs. Gates.

Second Row: Stephanie Arehart, Joyce Keller, Linda Nichols, Andrea McClellan, Linda Koser, Sandy Heston, Judy Petersen, Jackie Kehr.

Third Row: Sue Wynn, Kay Connor, Karen Zaugg, Karol Steger, Kay Klippel, Pat Campbell, Kathy Jordon.

Fourth Row: Pat Ness, Karen Arbutina, Karen Holmes, Vicki Woodman, Judy Bauer, Ellen Shiplet.

PARLEZ-VOUS FRANÇAIS ?

Club members demonstrate the dance presented at the International Fair.

Meetings in French require concentration.

French Club led by Ellen Shiplet, President; Adrienne Lev, Vice-President; Ginny Davison, Secretary; and Lee Owings, Treasurer was a very busy and hard-working organization this year.

Members presented a program at the International Fair sponsored by the YWCA. They also sent gifts to a French orphanage at Christmas.

A visit to the Toledo Museum to see a display from Versailles in January was the highlight of the year.

French Club helps its members to learn more of the customs and language of the French people and helps provide recreation and entertainment for French students.

First Row: Gail Shadek, Carole Wadsworth, Barb Brollier, Karen Holmes, Rose Timan, Betsy Stephens, Missy Lowrey, Judy Malone, Carol Dalton, Janis Feld.

Second Row: Sallie Sweet, Kay Connor, Sally Huber, Lee Catello, Liz May, Adrienne Lev, Lee Owings, Ginny Davison, Ellen Shiplet, Wini Wain, Stephanie Arehart, Mrs. Bishop.

Third Row: Kay Elliott, Suzanne Weikert, Sherry Elmore, Margie Ott, Jeanne Yockey, Loren Hurwitz, Reese Mills, Walter Roth, Tom Avellon, Jim Lewis, Sue Darling.

E PLURIBUS UNUM

To promote an interest in the Roman language, to encourage the study of Roman customs, and to establish a working knowledge of Roman history, law, and art were the purposes of the Latin Club. Throughout the school year programs included speakers, slides, and skits. A major project included planning for a banquet held in May.

Miss Howard, Latin teacher at M. H. S., advised the group. Officers were President, Dick Whitney; Vice-President, Carolyn Heaberlin; Secretary, Kathe Ellison; and Treasurer, Dave Preuninger.

What the well-dressed Roman would wear...

First Row: Elaine Bajai, Becky Vnasdale, Sherry Schmidt, Susie Spain, Linda Weinstein, Beth Sharrock, Carolyn Heaberlin, Miss Howard--advisor, Carolyn Barr, Cheryl Barnett, Linda Jerger, Ruth Klingensmith.
 Second Row: Diane Wappner, Marilyn Dent, Sharon Marshall, Barb Oster, Barb Fifer, Rick Wallace, Dean Tucker, Dave Preuninger, Iris Faulkner, Brenda Rush, Tanya Sands, Linda Hanna, June Jordan.
 Third Row: Pat Russell, Bob Stevens, Mat Thompson, Bill Barbone, Alex Curchin, John Stegall, Doug Barbone, Tom Yarger.

JA, ICH SPRECHE DEUTSCH!

Native costumes reflect love of tradition.

Ursi points out her home town.

This year marked the reactivation of Mansfield Senior High School's German Club. Many unique, entertaining projects helped to stimulate club members' interests in the German language and culture. The group staged a Christmas party in the gay atmosphere of a German "Biergarten" and attended a church service in German to experience a more serious phase of German life. Interesting speakers, colorful films, and entertaining skits livened the club's meetings.

Assisting President Reinhardt Steger were Ingrid Wilhelm, Vice-President; Kay Klippel, Secretary; Ursula Stahl, Assistant Secretary; and Evelyn Smith, Treasurer. Mr. Richard Nixon acted as the club's advisor.

Science students inspect a sound-wave device.

Working to further enrich the knowledge and interest of high school students in the varied fields of science, Mansfield Senior High School's Science Club sponsored many interesting activities throughout the year, including a trip to the space fair in Cleveland and tours of Mansfield's Guidance Center and General Hospital. The organization did much to promote science study and science fair participation.

Officers included David Udhe, President; Suzanne Weikert, Vice-President; Evelyn Smith, Secretary; and Reinhardt Steger, Treasurer. Advising the group were Mr. Kenneth Watson, Mrs. Betty Harris, and Mrs. Norma Stanfield.

SCIENTISTS OF TOMORROW

Mr. Lantz presents an interesting program.

Seated: Bill Reese, Suzanne Uhl, Stephanie Wojcik, Karen Arbutina.

Standing: Kay Klippel, Leedia Catello, Sally Huber, Kim Michener, Charles Ellison, Robert Evans, Steve Hattman, Vicki Woodman, Sue Stocker, Diane Dewald.

SCHOLARSHIP PLUS

Mr. Cellini

These outstanding seniors were chosen for membership at the end of their junior year in recognition of their scholarship, good character, leadership and service given to the school.

Advised by Miss Mary Spiggle and Mr. Louis Cellini, the group sponsored College Night as well as an after-the-game dance.

LEADING IS NO EASY JOB

Secretaries play the vital role of recording club activities.

German Club officers plan the year's agenda.

Treasurers handle all financial matters.

Vice Presidents have the task of planning programs and contacting speakers.

Successful presidents need qualities of leadership.

Seniors

Seated: Mr. Pierson, advisor; Sue Stocker, secretary; Dave Vereeke, president

Standing: Mr. Cook, advisor; Mr. McBride, advisor; Leedia Catello, vice-president; Diane Dewald, treasurer

CLASS OF 1963

OFFICERS & ADVISORS

The Senior Class officers and advisors worked toward making the 1962-1963 school year all that it promised to be. Planning, working, helping, worrying, hoping, and caring define the role of leadership. These leaders have won our deep respect and our lasting appreciation.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

I need volunteers: You! You! and You!

Row 1: Dewald, Vereeke, Stocker, Catello
 Row 2: Robinson, Lashey, Silbert, Portz, Noehring, Connor, Brubaker
 Row 3: Baker, Thomas, Bucher, Russell, McDaniel, Prosser, Steinhour

OUR STRIVING UNDERCLASSMEN or SENIORS SPOOF SUCCESSORS

She was here when she should have been there, but she was there last period and found that she shouldn't have been there at all. Since she was there when she should have been here, where should she be now?

The polished senior scoffed at the junior; the confident junior jeered at the sophomores; the perplexed sophomores threw up their hands in humble but temporary surrender.

The senior Knight, armed for battle, looked sympathetically upon his new-found following.

The hopeful maidens looked up in honest admiration at their Knight in shining armor.

The accomplished athlete assured the kneeling aspirant that even he might--with work, discipline, sacrifice, dedication, and perseverance--achieve some small measure of recognition.

FROM DUSK UNTIL DAWN

7:00 — Y-Teen's early-evening meeting.

8:15 — Excitement— game time!

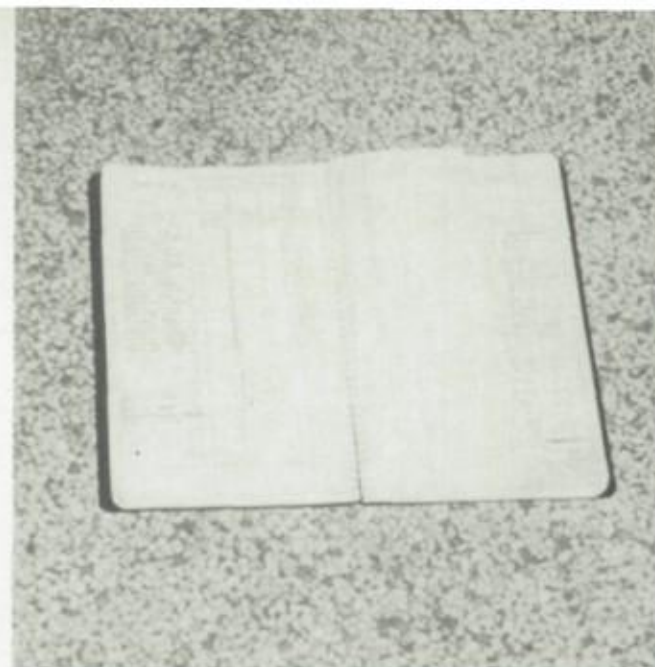

9:30 — Dance Band swings.

11:30 — Snack time at the L and K.

Too late - A lingering goodnight.

Suddenly it is the end of May. How swiftly the time has passed, whizzed by in an endless procession of tests and term papers! Now my time is taken with plans--plans for the summer and plans for the future. Still, after I am gone, there are those who remain--after every day, after every year.

School is over. For some of us it is just the end of another year--for others, the beginning of a life away from M. H. S. But even after I close my last book and end my last sleepless night of study, Mansfield Senior High will remain in my memories. Not all of my questions have been answered, but I feel that finally I'm beginning to know a bit about why.

IN APPRECIATION

The Manhigan has gone to press. We are not ashamed to admit that we are glad it is over. Yet there is not one of us who would hesitate to do it again. We have tried to present the story of a school and of the students in it. We have tried to show that from dawn to dusk, one is involved in some type of school activity. We have succeeded only if every student can see himself represented somewhere within the book's pages.

To the photographic studios, Armen, Buell-Kraft and Smucker, go our deepest thanks. Your patience and your fine work were indeed appreciated. Also, thanks to Ohio School Pictures and the Mansfield News-Journal for their contributions.

For the book itself we would like to thank the Richland Printing Company for printing, Lash Litho Plate Company and General Lithoplate for plates, and the Forest Hill Company for binding. Mr. Schoen of the S. K. Smith Company who made endless trips to consult us on our cover also deserves our gratitude.

Thank you, teachers of Senior High, for the many students that you permitted out of class for our pictures. Mr. Glass, we appreciate your consideration of our numerous requests and your understanding of our problems. Mr. Sauder, thank you for your cheerful advice, your frugal planning and your efficient Business Staff.

To the staff, who worked diligently and faithfully, goes well deserved applause. We thank you for putting up with our yelling, our deadlines and our schedule. You must know there is nothing personal; we had only one thing on our minds. The book was first.

Lastly, thank you, Mr. Hailey for your enthusiasm and your assistance. You were always around when a solution or an encouraging word was needed, and the endless time you put in working with us from "dawn past dusk" cannot be measured in thanks.

We are grateful for the experience, the challenge and the fulfillment. We shall never forget those with whom we have worked, and we are certain that our successors will be capable ones.
